

Transfers Cut Out on More B. R. T. Lines

Extra Fare Required at All but 3 Connecting Points Between Surface Lines and Rapid Transit System

Expect Next Step Sunday

Judge Mayer May Sign Order To-day Returning 26 Lines That Defaulted on Leases

Brooklyn got another taste yesterday of increased car fares, when transfers between the surface lines and the elevated and subway lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company were discontinued, following an order issued a month ago. Only three points were excepted from the discontinuance order: the subway at Eighty-sixth Street, Sands Street at the Brooklyn Bridge terminal, and Marcy Avenue at the Williamsburg Bridge.

The following lines were included in the order: Brooklyn Heights Railway Company, Brooklyn, Queens County and Suburban Railroad Company, Nassau Electric Railroad Company, Norton's Point line and the elevated lines of the New York Consolidated Railway Company and the South Brooklyn Railway Company.

The next stage will be reached Sunday, when, it is understood, a proposed order of Federal Judge Mayer returning twenty-six leased lines, which had been jointly operated, to the owners, for independent operation, will go into effect. Judge Mayer was to have signed the order yesterday, but when the legal representatives of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company and of Lindley M. Garrison, B. R. T. receiver, appeared before him, it was found that several new points had arisen which would have to be settled first.

New Clause in Order

One new clause in the order, according to Carl M. Owens, Mr. Garrison's counsel, called for the turning over of more than four hundred cars to the Brooklyn City Railroad Company by the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company, which is giving up the lines at the order of the court. The court advised that the question of remuneration for this equipment be settled as soon as possible. The parties to the order entered a private conference.

Judge Mayer announced that the order would be signed to-day. Although the matter of transfers was not discussed at the hearing, there is a probability that the Brooklyn City line may give transfers on certain lines, although not compelled to do so. The complete list of transfer points abolished will be made public to-day, and posted in all the cars to-night or tomorrow.

Assets Exclusive Right

It is said the Brooklyn City company will insist on its exclusive right to operate cars over leased lines now being used by other companies, but will continue to allow other companies to use the tracks under existing contracts.

The Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company will continue to supply power to the leased lines, according to a contract approved by Judge Mayer, but it is expected that the Brooklyn City directors will take steps shortly to construct power houses of their own. The test case brought by Julius Merksamer, of 416 Twelfth Avenue, Brooklyn, against Receiver Garrison, because of the payment of an extra fare on the West End line to Coney Island, came up yesterday before Justice Nipher, in the Fifth District Municipal Court. Counsel for both sides presented argument. Decision was reserved.

Cunliffe-Owen Promoted

Author Made Officer of Legion by President Poincare

Frederick Cunliffe-Owen, editor and author, has been promoted by President Poincare of France, with the approval of Great Britain, to the rank of officer of the Legion of Honor, it was announced here yesterday. Mr. Cunliffe-Owen has been a knight of the Legion of Honor for nearly forty years, and represents the third generation of his family in the Legion. He was made a knight commander of the Order of the Crown of Italy by King Victor Emmanuel in 1907.

Mr. Cunliffe-Owen is first vice-president of the Pilgrims' Society, chairman of the France-America Society and chairman of the American-Hellenic Society.

Police Refuse Permit for Salvation Army Parade

Heavy Traffic on Saturday the Reason Given, So March Is Called Off

Because the police have refused to issue a permit to the Salvation Army, the parade planned for to-morrow on Fifth Avenue in connection with the five-day congress that is being held here has been called off. The police gave as their reason that the heavy Saturday traffic could not be held up. Commander Booth and Colonel William Pearl, chief secretary, were the principal speakers at the meetings held yesterday at the Metropolitan Temple, Seventh Avenue and Fourteenth Street. More than 1,400 delegates from all parts of the country are in attendance. The sessions to-day will be executive. Adjutant Helen G. Purviance, who filed the first doughnut for the A. E. F. men, is attending the congress.

The final day of the congress, Sunday, has been designated as a "day of salvation." Commander Booth will receive the Distinguished Service Medal from Major General Shanks in recognition of her services. The Rev. Charles B. Fagnani will be chairman of the meeting at the Lexington Theatre, Sunday afternoon, when Commander Booth will decorate a number of her workers with Salvation Army medals for conspicuous duty abroad.

Lipton's Challenge For America's Cup Is Received Here

Through Agent, Asks First Race June 20 in Message to N. Y. Yacht Club, Which Has Made No Decision Yet

George Cormack, secretary of the New York Yacht Club, yesterday received a cabled challenge to race for the America's cup from H. L. Garrett, of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, acting on behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton, who will enter his yacht Shamrock IV in the contest. Mr. Cormack received a cable from the Ulster club:

"We beg leave again to challenge for the America's cup on behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton. Yacht will be Shamrock IV, already in America. First race to be sailed Thursday, June 24, 1920."

A supplementary cable provides the conditions of the challenge:

"In confirmation thereof in behalf of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club and in the interest of Sir Thomas Lipton, we challenge to sail a series of matches for the America's Cup with the yacht Shamrock IV against any one yacht built in the United States of America. The following are the specifications of the challenging yacht: Owner, Sir Thomas Lipton; Bart., K. C. V. O.; Shamrock IV, length at load waterline, 75 feet; rigged cutter. First race to be sailed June 24, 1920; second race, Saturday, June 26; third race, Tuesday, June 29; further races, if any, to be sailed on each following Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday."

The cablegram further states that the race shall be sailed according to the conditions made for races given in 1914 in which the Shamrock was to have taken part.

No decision in reference to the challenge has as yet been made by members of the New York club, though it is expected that the challenge will be accepted.

McCarteer Now Would Retain Zone System

President of Public Service Corporation Changes His Mind Since Receipts Increase

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 15.—Thomas N. McCarteer, president of the Public Service Corporation, who petitioned the Public Utilities Commission two weeks ago for permission to abandon the zone trolley fare system adopted at the suggestion of the corporation, reversed himself again to-day when the commission held a hearing on the proposal. He suggested that it be retained with modifications agreeable to the company and the representatives of sixteen New Jersey municipalities who were present.

The commission took its cue from Mr. McCarteer's suggestion and arranged for the municipal officials to meet McCarteer at the Public Service Corporation offices in Newark next Monday to draft a "constructive zone fare plan." This will be submitted to the Public Utilities Commission the following day at the State House here.

Mr. McCarteer said that the company's receipts had increased $4,000 a day since he asked that the zone system be abolished, but he believed it could be made workable.

Women's and Misses' Apparel

Our showing of autumn fashions has the predominating influence of Paris, embodying all the latest suggestions with the individuality characteristic of Arnold, Constable & Co.

Notable among the collection are Coats and Dresses of a very superior quality that would ordinarily bring much higher prices, but which we are featuring for a week of sales at decided concessions from their real value.

72.50

WOMEN'S COATS of Suede velvet (as illustrated), with a huge adjustable French Seal Fur collar that can be muffled closely to the throat or thrown gracefully open, revealing the generous lines on which it is cut. Handsomely lined throughout and warmly interlined. In taupe, brown, reindeer, navy and black.

Real Value $85.00

Special 72.50

TRICOTINE DRESSES for women (as illustrated), also an assortment of fashionable jerseys in a variety of models in soft or straightline effects.

Real Value $48.00

Special 39.50

MISSIES' COATS of silver-toned velvet—copy of a Lanvin model—attractively lined—well tailored and finished with careful attention to the smallest detail. The large convertible collar depends for its effectiveness on smart, simple lines rather than fur.

Real Value $48.00

Special 39.50

TRICOTINE DRESS for misses (as illustrated)—an unusual and decidedly different effect is achieved by the lavish use of soft wool worked in crossbar pattern which is allowed to run riot over the frock. The dark blue Tricotine serves as a neutral background for grey, orange or old blue wool design—as capricious youth prefers. A model that attains the distinction of being at once smart and at the same time charmingly simple.

Real Value $45.00 39.50

WE HAVE BEEN TALKING LOW PRICES

because General High Price is just now riding at the head of the Parade, and Common Sense dictates he should not be there.

BUT! We must not forget that value is important.

It would be folly for us to sell inferior clothing just because the price is low.

We guarantee satisfaction to every buyer of our merchandise. If the Clothing does not make good the loss would be ours.

Our clothing is staunchly built, tailored by hand where necessary, properly styled and of best materials possible.

You owe your pocketbook a visit to this store.
